
NOI-GALLUP POLL Second National Poll (November 2007)

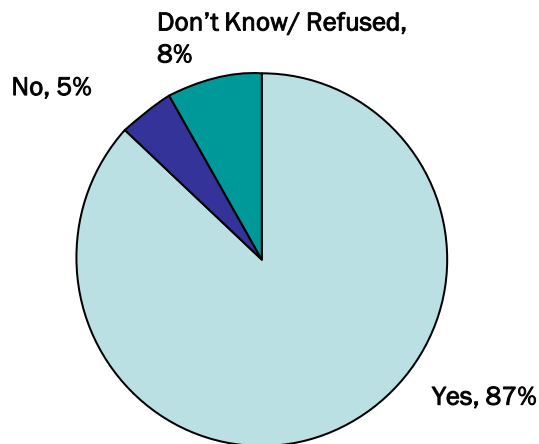

Results Summary

The NOI-Gallup Poll

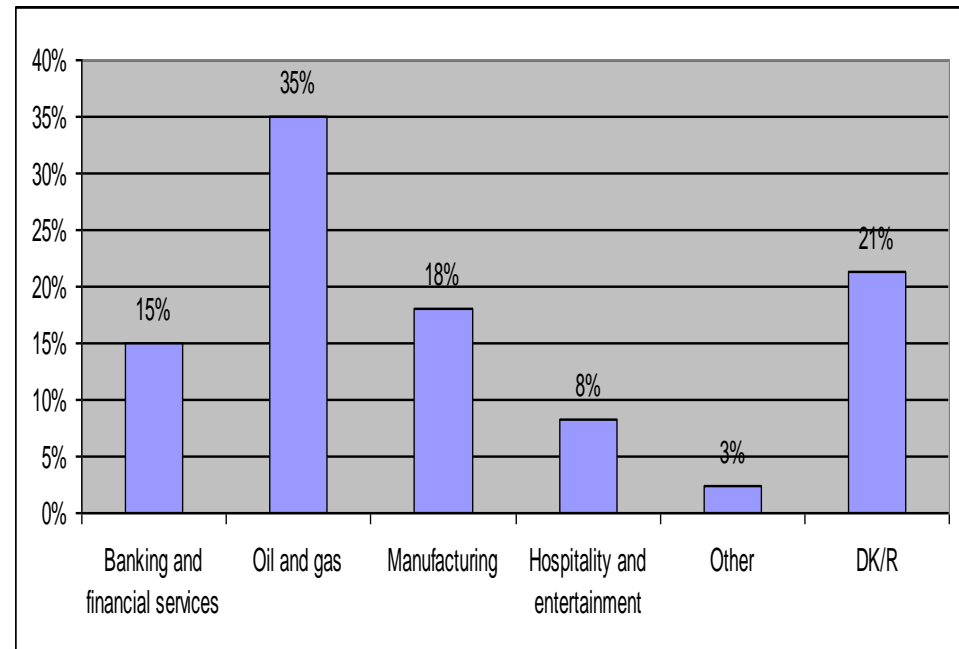

- The NOI/Gallup Poll is designed to yield a representative opinion of Nigerians through the following features:
 - Face-to-face interviews
 - 2000 people aged 15 and above
 - 6 geopolitical zones
 - Interviews conducted in English, Yoruba, Hausa, Ibo, and Pidgin English
 - Sampling and analysis conducted with robust survey methodologies developed by The Gallup Poll

Should companies give back to the community? And how?

- Do you think businesses have a responsibility to support the communities in which they operate?

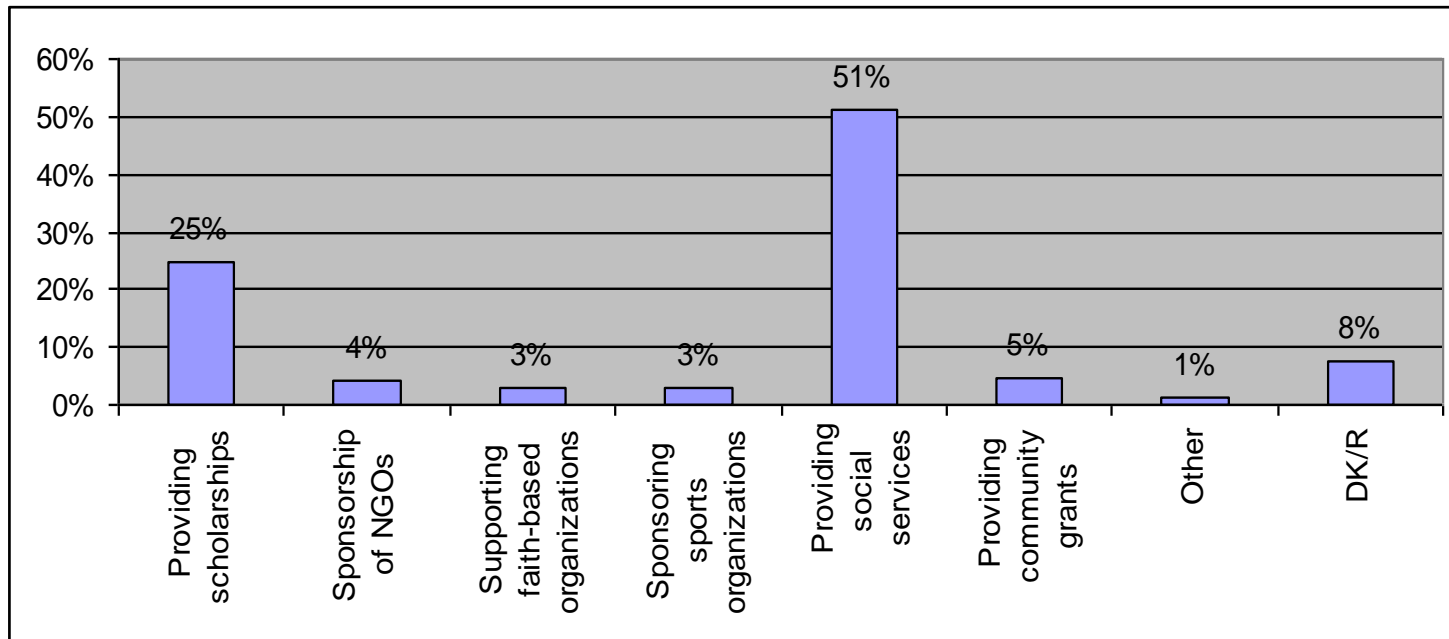

- Which companies do you think give back to the community the most?

Should companies give back to the community? And how?

- What is the best means of 'giving back' to the community?

Should companies give back to the community? And how?

- 87% of Nigerians say corporations should support the communities in which they operate
 - 35% think that oil and gas companies give the most
- 1 in 2 respondents say the best way to give back is by providing social services especially water, boreholes and hospitals
 - 47% of people with primary education or less say social services is best way to give back compared to 17% of those with tertiary education
 - As age increases so does the percent of Nigerians saying providing social services is the best way for companies to give back to communities
- 1 in 4 say giving scholarships is the best way to give back
 - Especially those 30 – 45 years old (age bracket of people with children in school)

NOI-GALLUP POLL Third National Poll (May 2008)

Results Summary

Who should be responsible for the provision and maintenance of infrastructure?

Questions

- In your opinion, who should be responsible for providing infrastructure for Nigeria, such as roads, boreholes, hospitals?
- Consider a case where the government has provided infrastructure (such as roads, boreholes, or hospitals). Who do you think should be responsible for maintenance (i.e. occasional repairs, fixing of parts) of the infrastructure?
- Consider a case where a private company has provided infrastructure (such as roads, boreholes, or hospitals). Who do you think should be responsible for maintenance (i.e. occasional repairs, fixing of parts) of the infrastructure?

1 Government

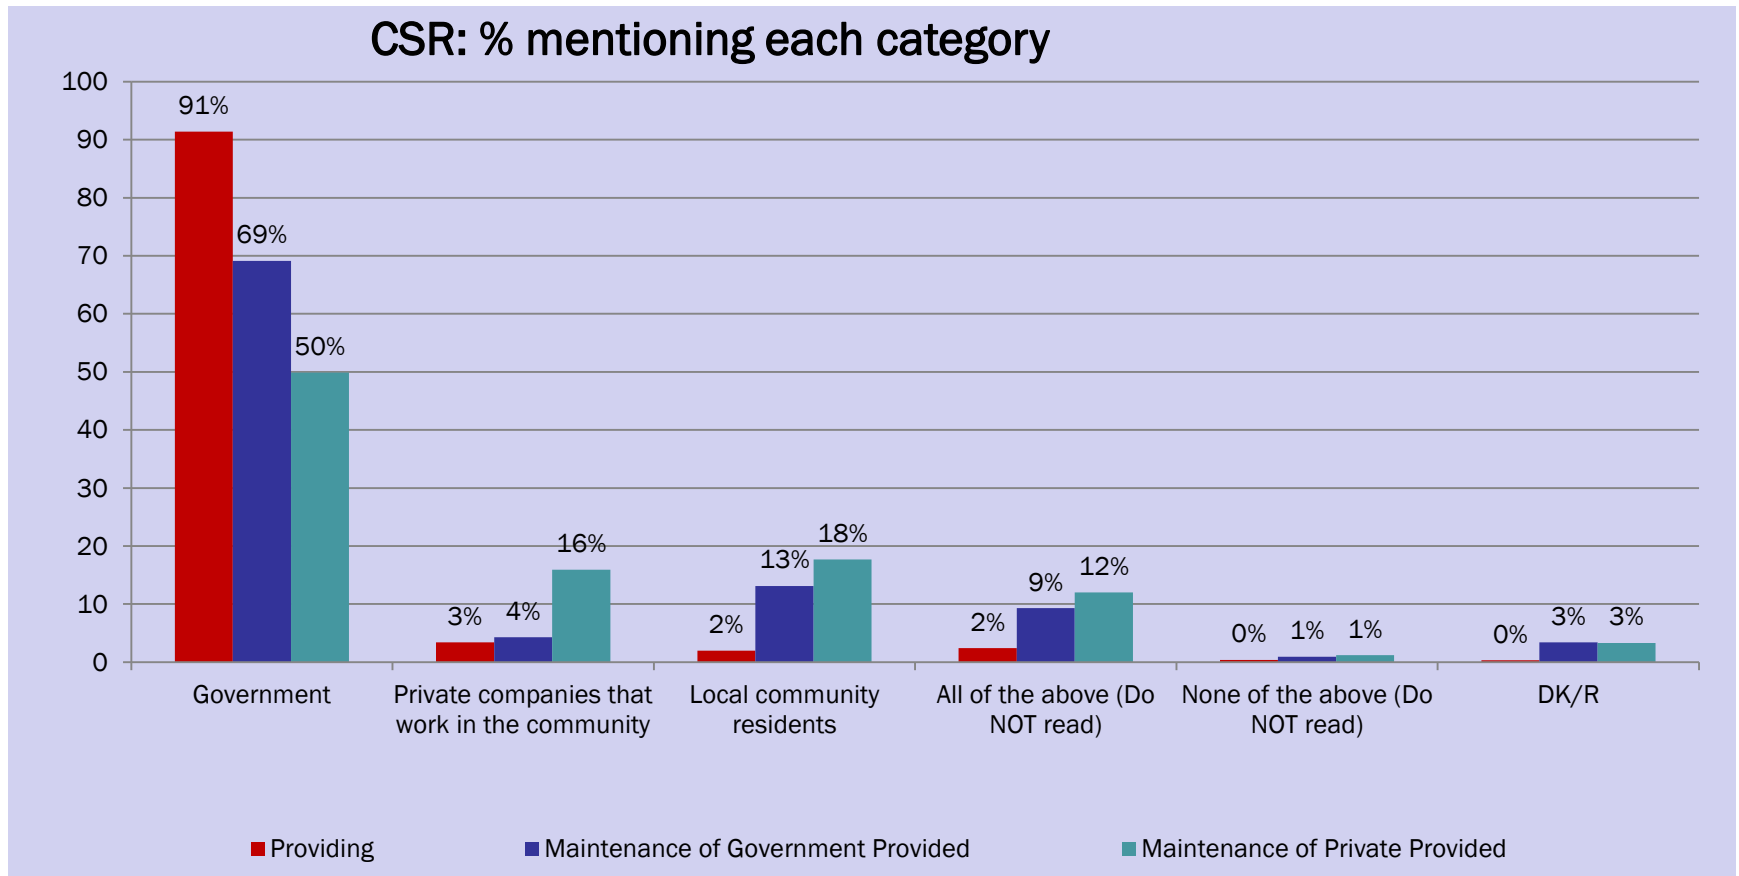

2 Private companies that work in the community

3 Local community residents

4 All of the above (do not read)

5 None of the above (do not read)

Who should be responsible for the provision and maintenance of infrastructure?

Who should be responsible for the provision and maintenance of infrastructure?

- 9 in 10 (91%) Nigerians say the government should be responsible for the provision of infrastructure (roads, boreholes, hospitals)
 - 69% think that the government should be responsible for the maintenance of government-provided infrastructure.
 - 50% say the government should be responsible for maintaining infrastructure provided by private companies
- 3% of respondents say private companies working in the community should be responsible for the provision of infrastructure
 - 4% of people think these companies should be responsible for the maintenance of government-provided infrastructure
 - 16% say the companies in the community should be responsible for the maintenance of privately-provided infrastructure

Who should be responsible for the provision and maintenance of infrastructure?

- 2% of respondents say the local community residents should be responsible for the provision of infrastructure
 - 13% think that local community should be responsible for the maintenance of government-provided infrastructure.
 - 18% believe local residents should be responsible for infrastructure provided by private companies.